DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of a reply to the previous Office Action, filed November 13, 2009. Claims 8, 14, 16 and 18 are pending and under consideration in the instant application. Any rejection of record in the previous Office Action, mailed August 25, 2009 that is not addressed in this action has been withdrawn.

Because this Office Action only maintains rejections set forth in the previous Office Action and/or sets forth new rejections that are necessitated by amendment, this Office Action is made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8, 14, 16 and 18 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ye et al and in view of Zuckerman.

Response to Arguments Concerning Claim Rejections – 35 USC § 103 (a)

Applicant's arguments filed November 13, 2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The following grounds of traversal are presented:

Art Unit: 1636

Ye et al produce expression vectors of chimeric proteins incorporating the transcriptional activator and PTD, and tests the ability of the PTD to deliver the protein in a cell by luciferase activity in a cell which is already transfected with the Gal4-luciferase reporter vector, as opposed to the present invention wherein the binding complex was obtained outside the cell, and then delivered into the cell.

Applicant's arguments have not been found persuasive for the following reasons.

Nothing in the claims indicates that the binding complex was obtained outside the cell and then delivered into the cell. In fact, claim 16 has the delivery of the binding complex occurring in vivo or in vitro.

The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed November 13, 2009 is insufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 8, 14, 16 and 18 based upon the obviousness rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as set forth in the last Office action because: the showing is not commensurate in scope with the claims. Applicant is arguing that the results shown in Exhibit A show an unexpected distinction between the present invention and the prior art, but the example is limited to T cells in the presence of lipofectamine, limitations that are not found in the claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

No claims are allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
